Foreword

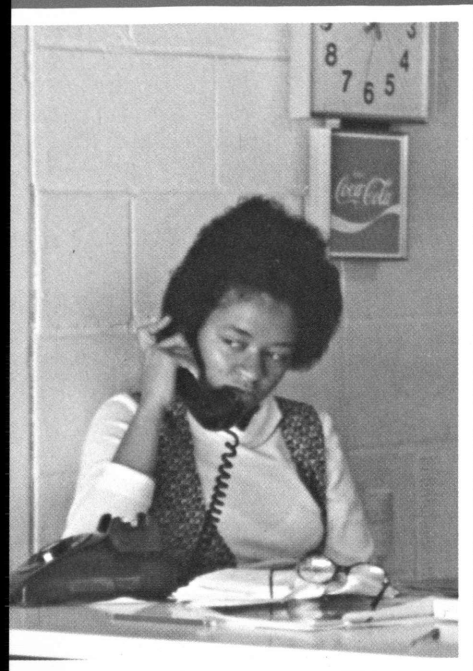

On a college campus,
there is a great deal to be learned -
academically and otherwise.

As each one gropes and finally reaches
his goals and expectations,
he develops a new lifestyle filled with insight, hope, and . . . confusion.

Everyday brings a different emotion,
an exciting discovery
and a new friend.

Among these few pages an attempt has been made to preserve such encounters and keep alive the meanings
they have for each individual.

Perhaps you can uncover a piece of your story in an INDIAN LEGEND.

EXISTING

I shall pass through this world but once. If, therefore, there be any kindness I can show or any good thing I can do, let me do it now.

Stephen Grellet

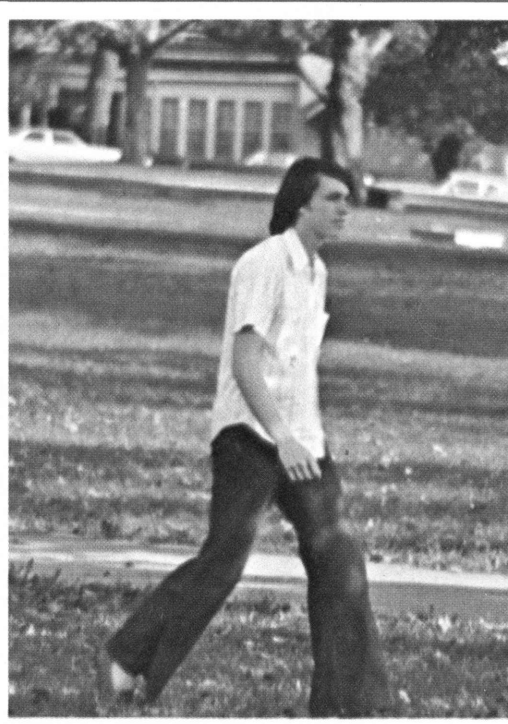

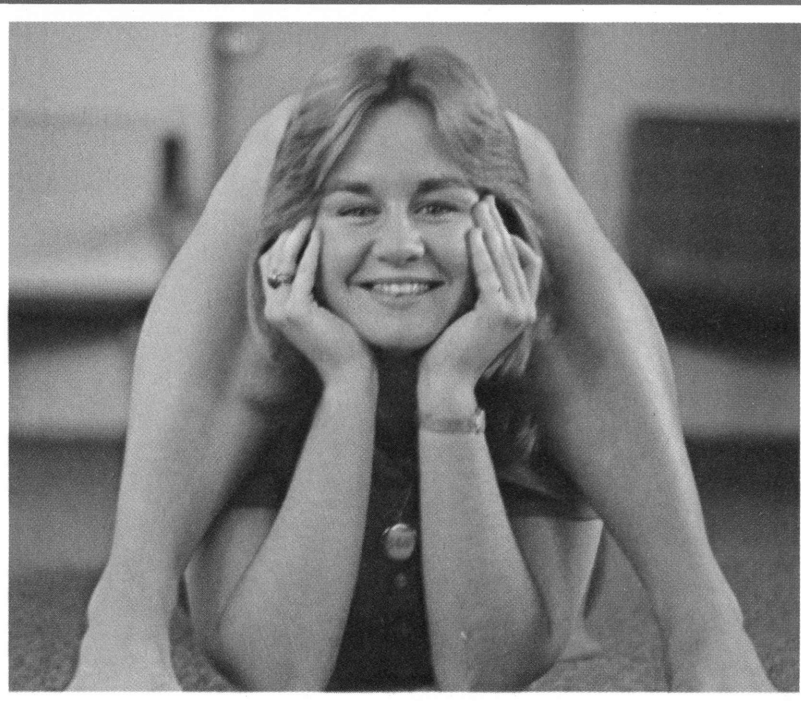

INDIVIDUALITY

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or faraway.

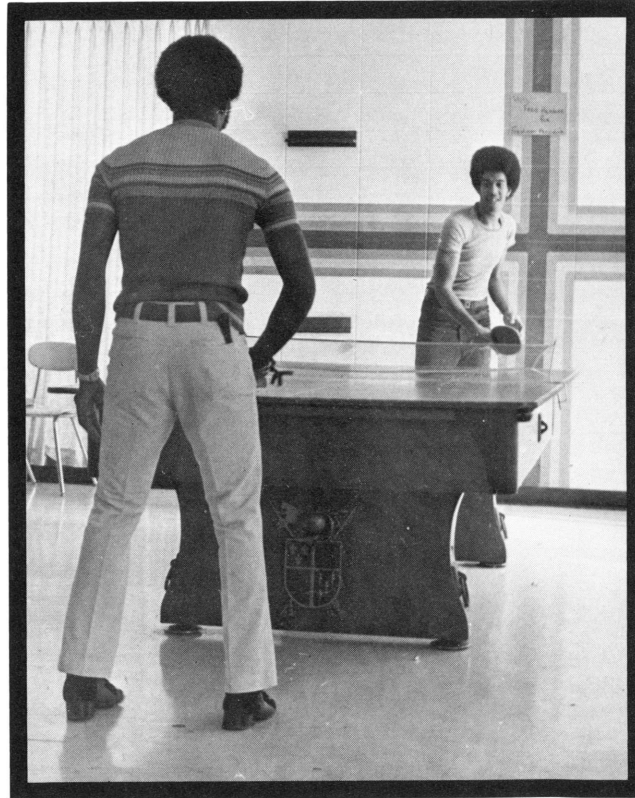

Henry David Thoreau

INTERACTION

Be good, get good and do good. Do all the good you can; to all the people you can; in all the ways you can; as often as you can; and as long as you can.

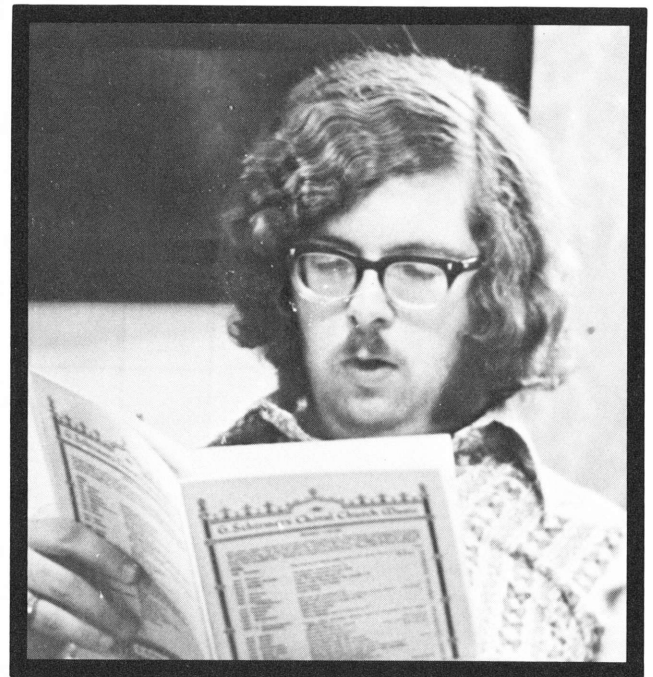

Spurgeon

MELODY

"He who sings,
prays twice."

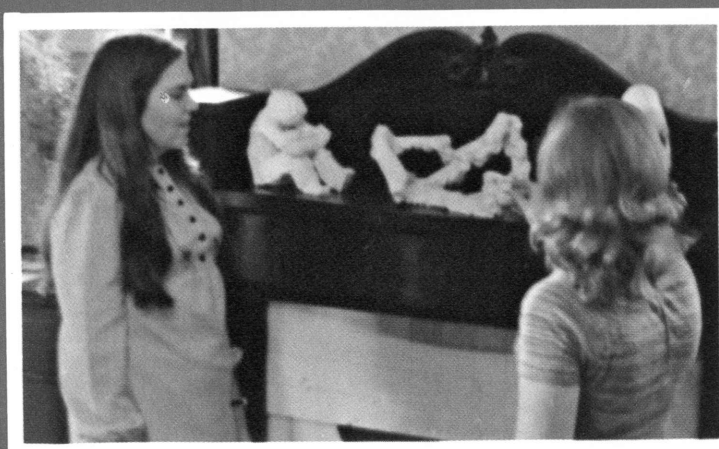

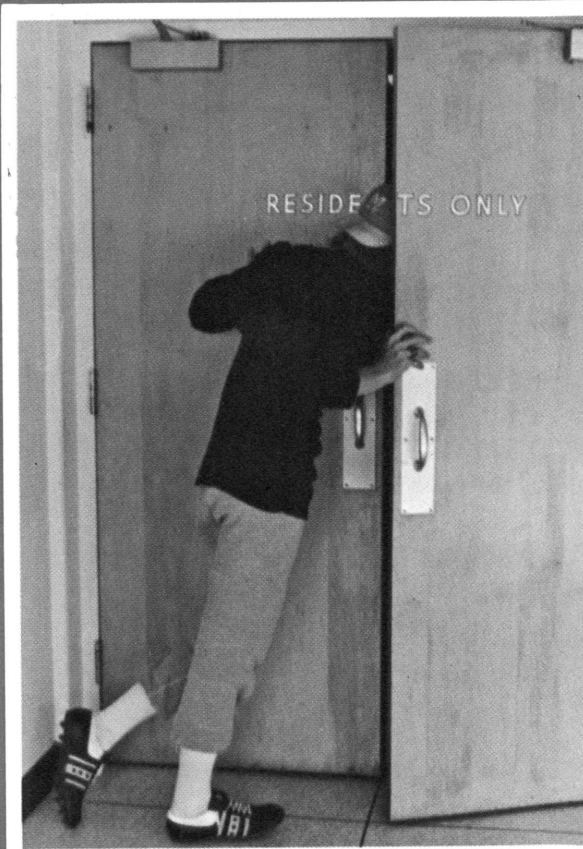

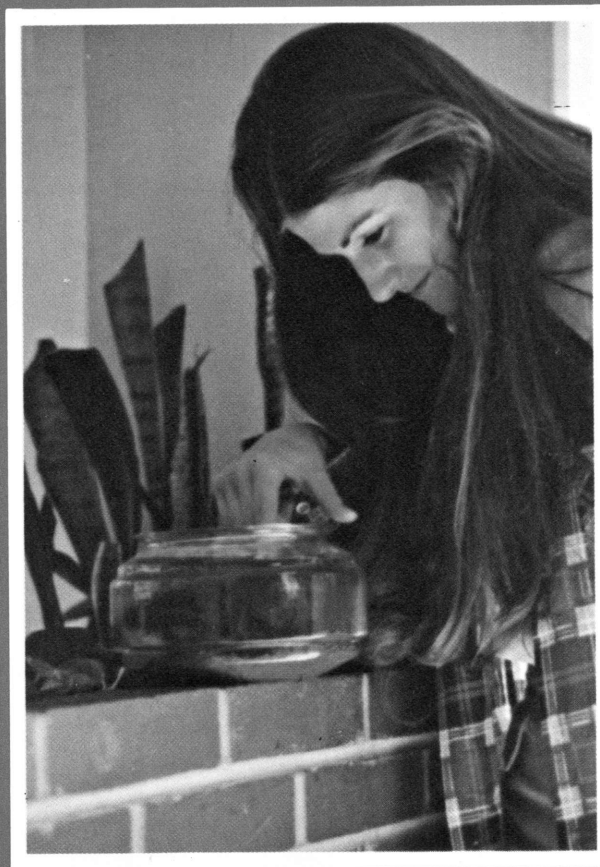

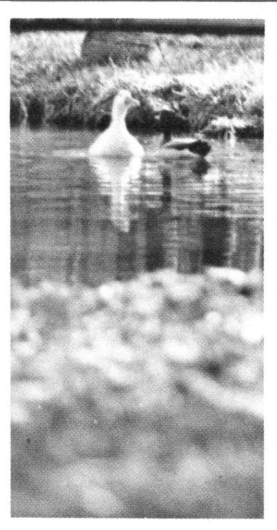

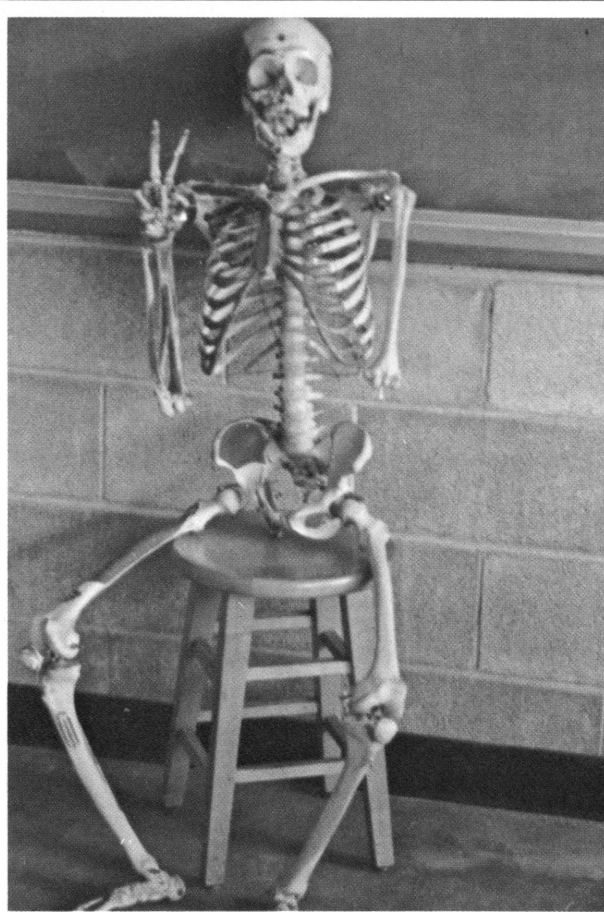

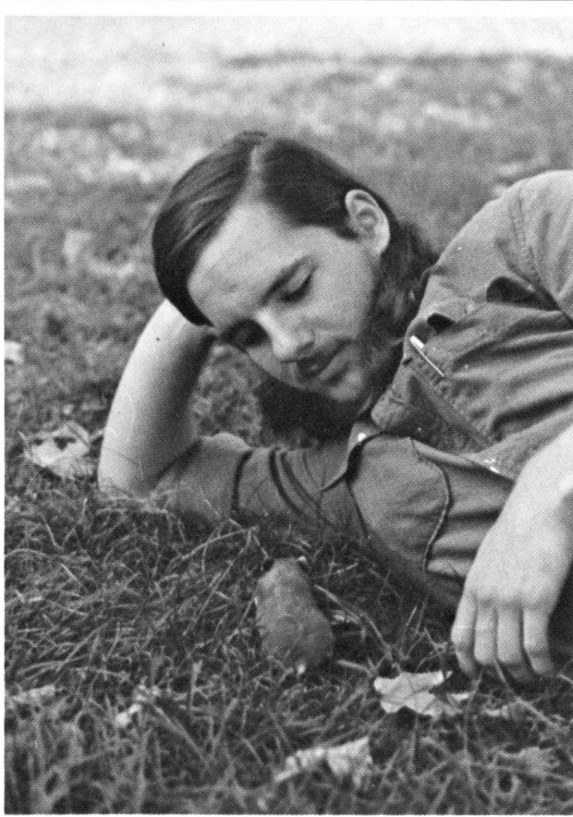

CURIOSITY

There are golden apples to be picked and green hills to climb and meadows to run, when you're young.

There are roaring rivers to be crossed and bridges to build and wild oats to sow as you grow.

Rod McKuen

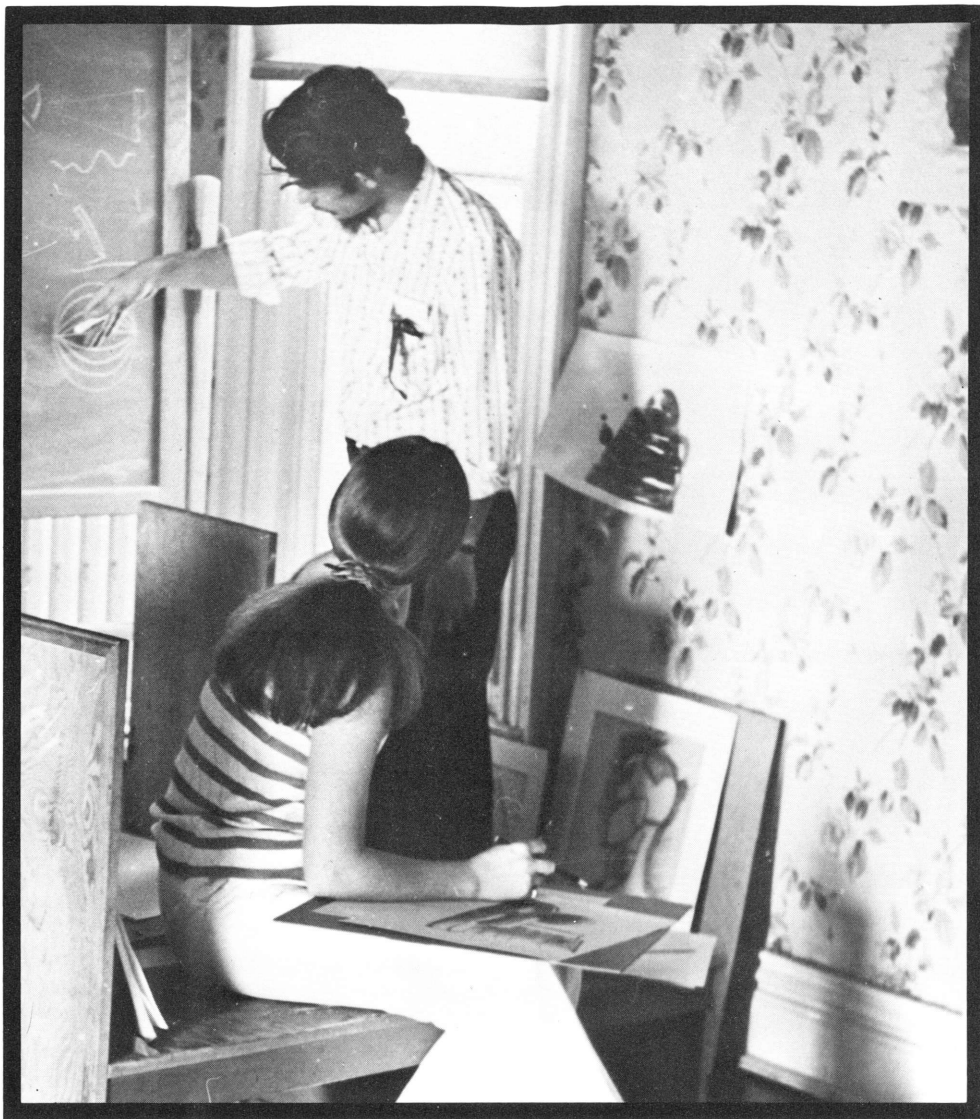

DISCOVERY

It is a wholesome and necessary thing for us to turn again to the earth and in the contemplation of her beauties to know the sense of wonder and humility.

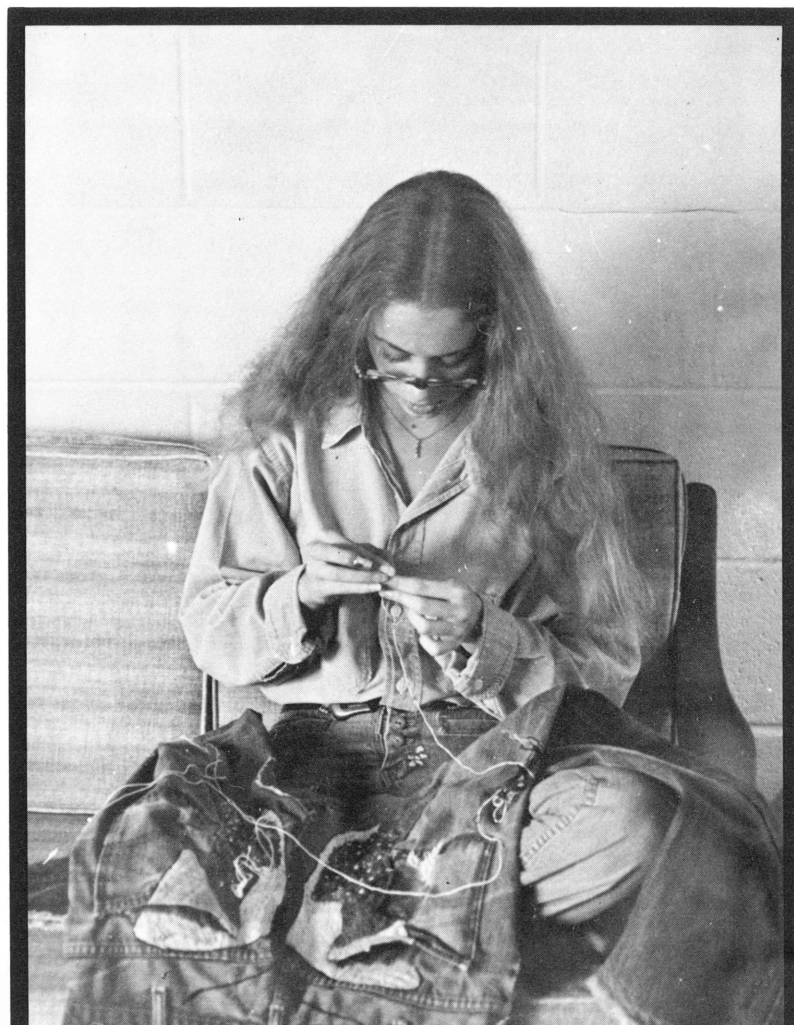

Rachel Carson

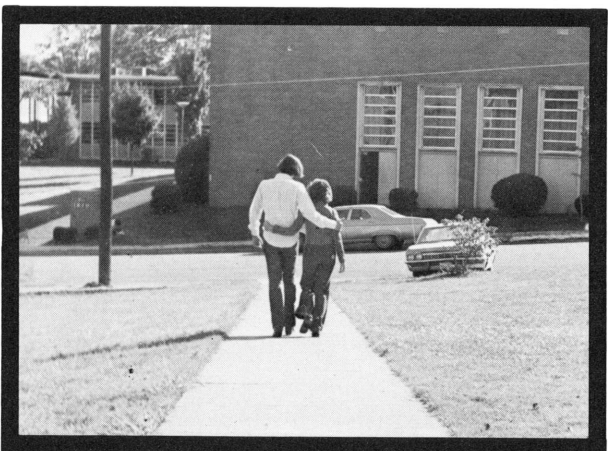

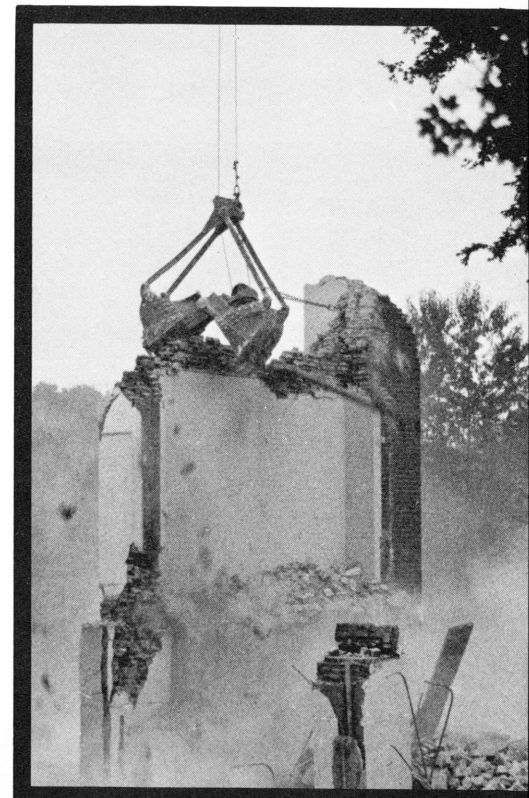

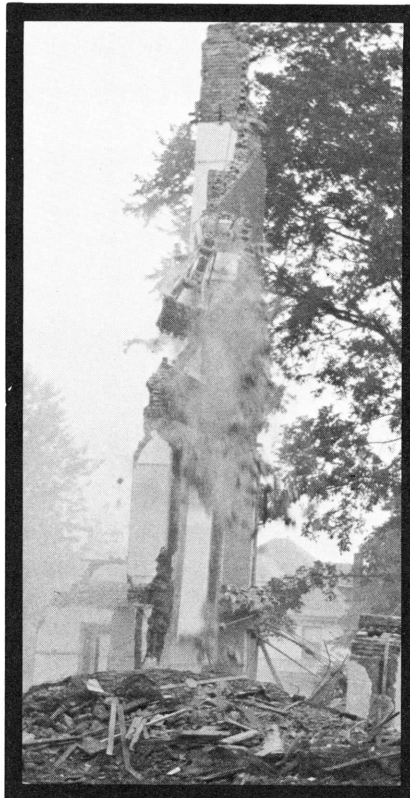

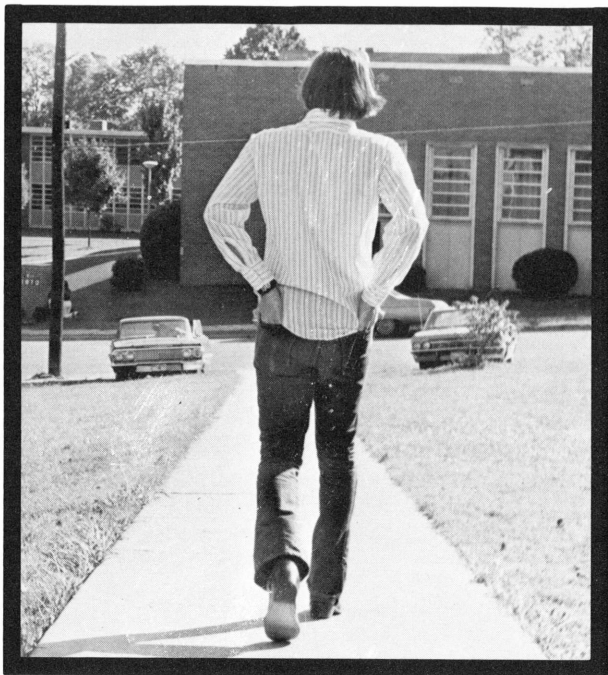

DETERMINATION

Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent. The slogan 'press on' has solved, and always will solve, the problems of the human race.

Anonymous

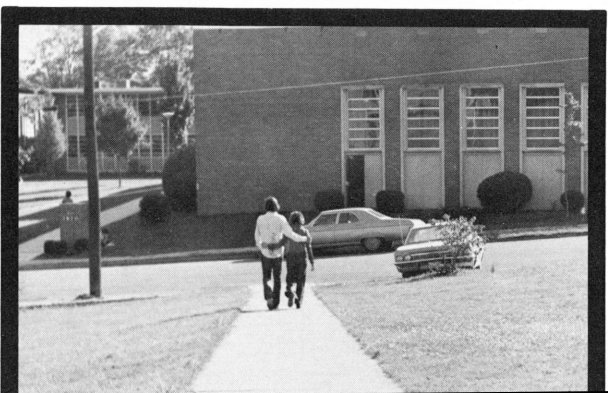

PROGRESSING

If man's reach did not exceed his grasp, then what's a heaven for?

Robert Browning

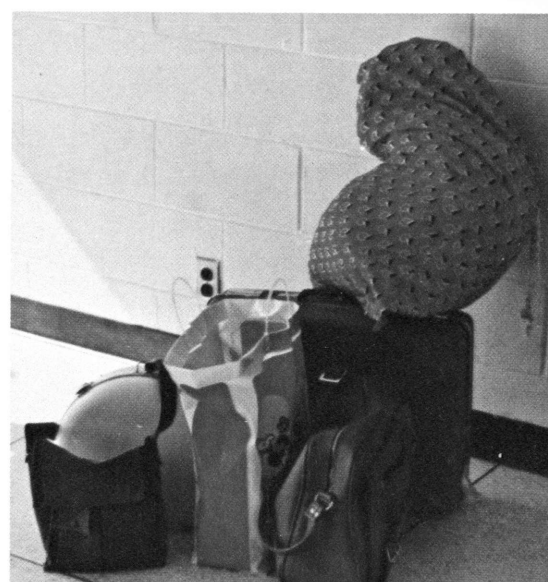

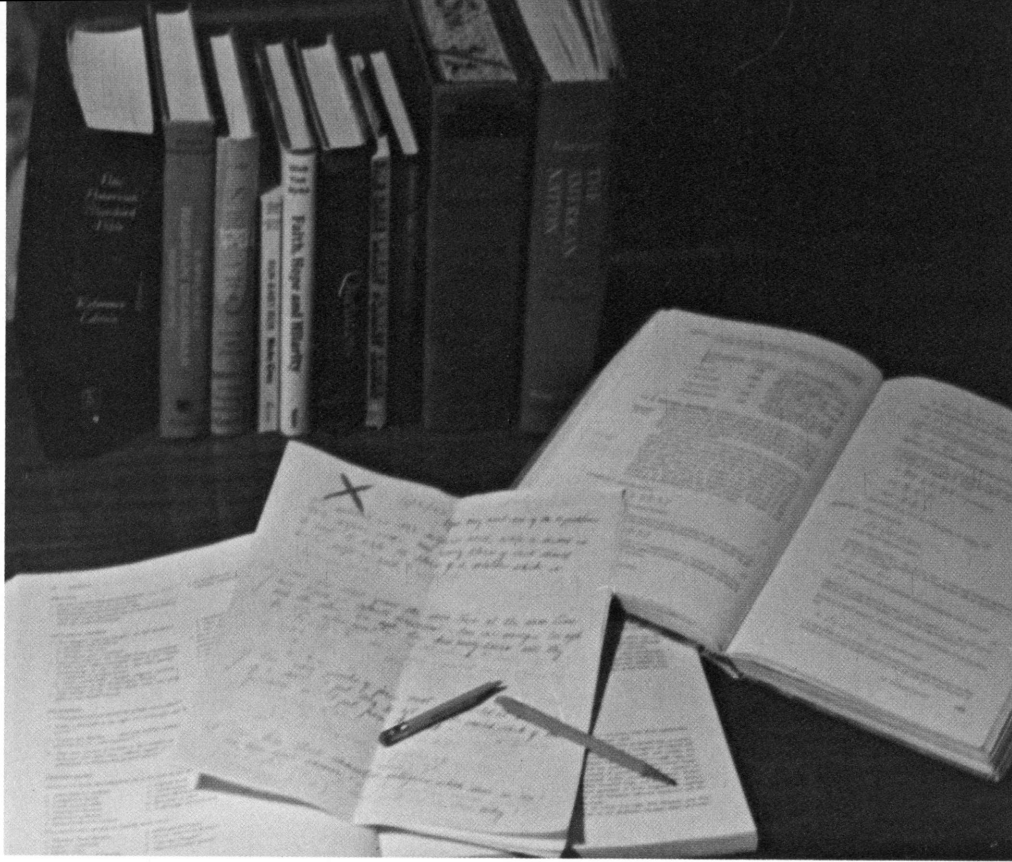

ANTICIPATION

Time is too slow for those who wait, too swift for those who fear, too long for those who grieve, too short for those who rejoice, but for those who love, time is eternity.

Anonymous

FRUSTRATION

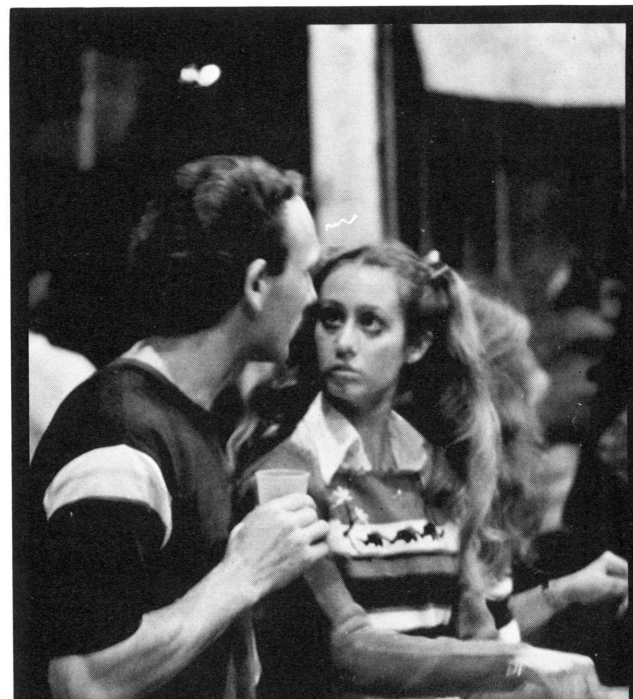

I know that you believe you understand what you think I said, but I am not sure you realize that what you heard is not what I meant.

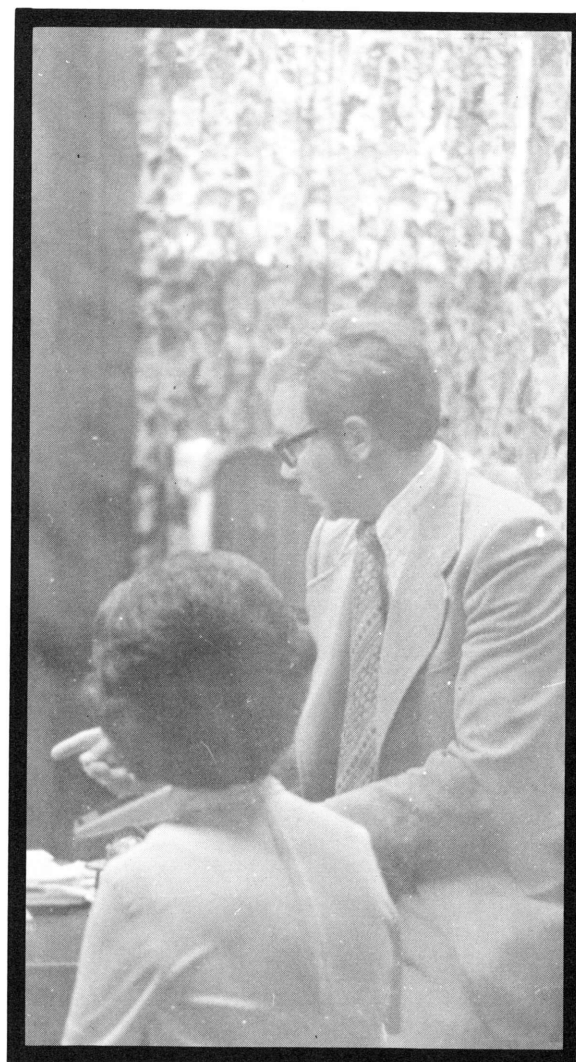

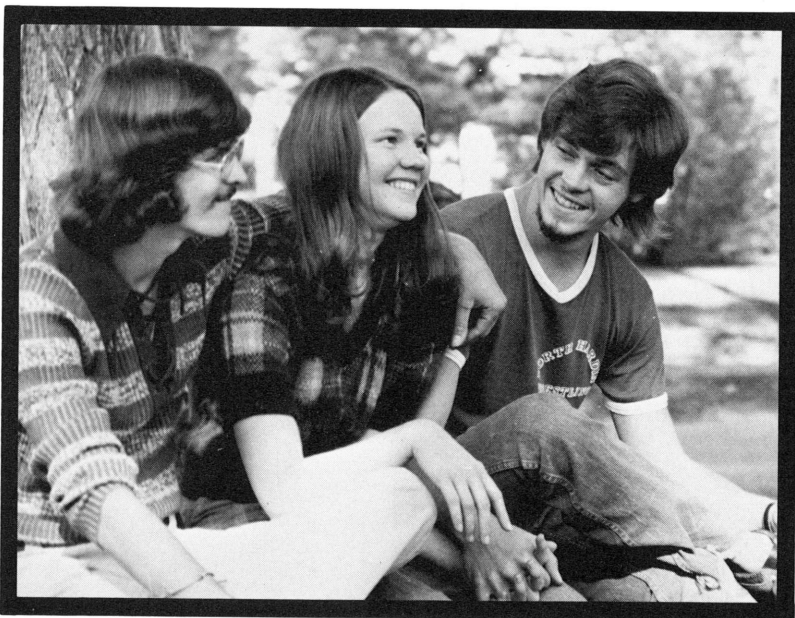

INSPIRATION

I believe in the sun, even when it is not shining. I believe in love, even when I am alone. I believe in God, even when he is silent.

Anonymous

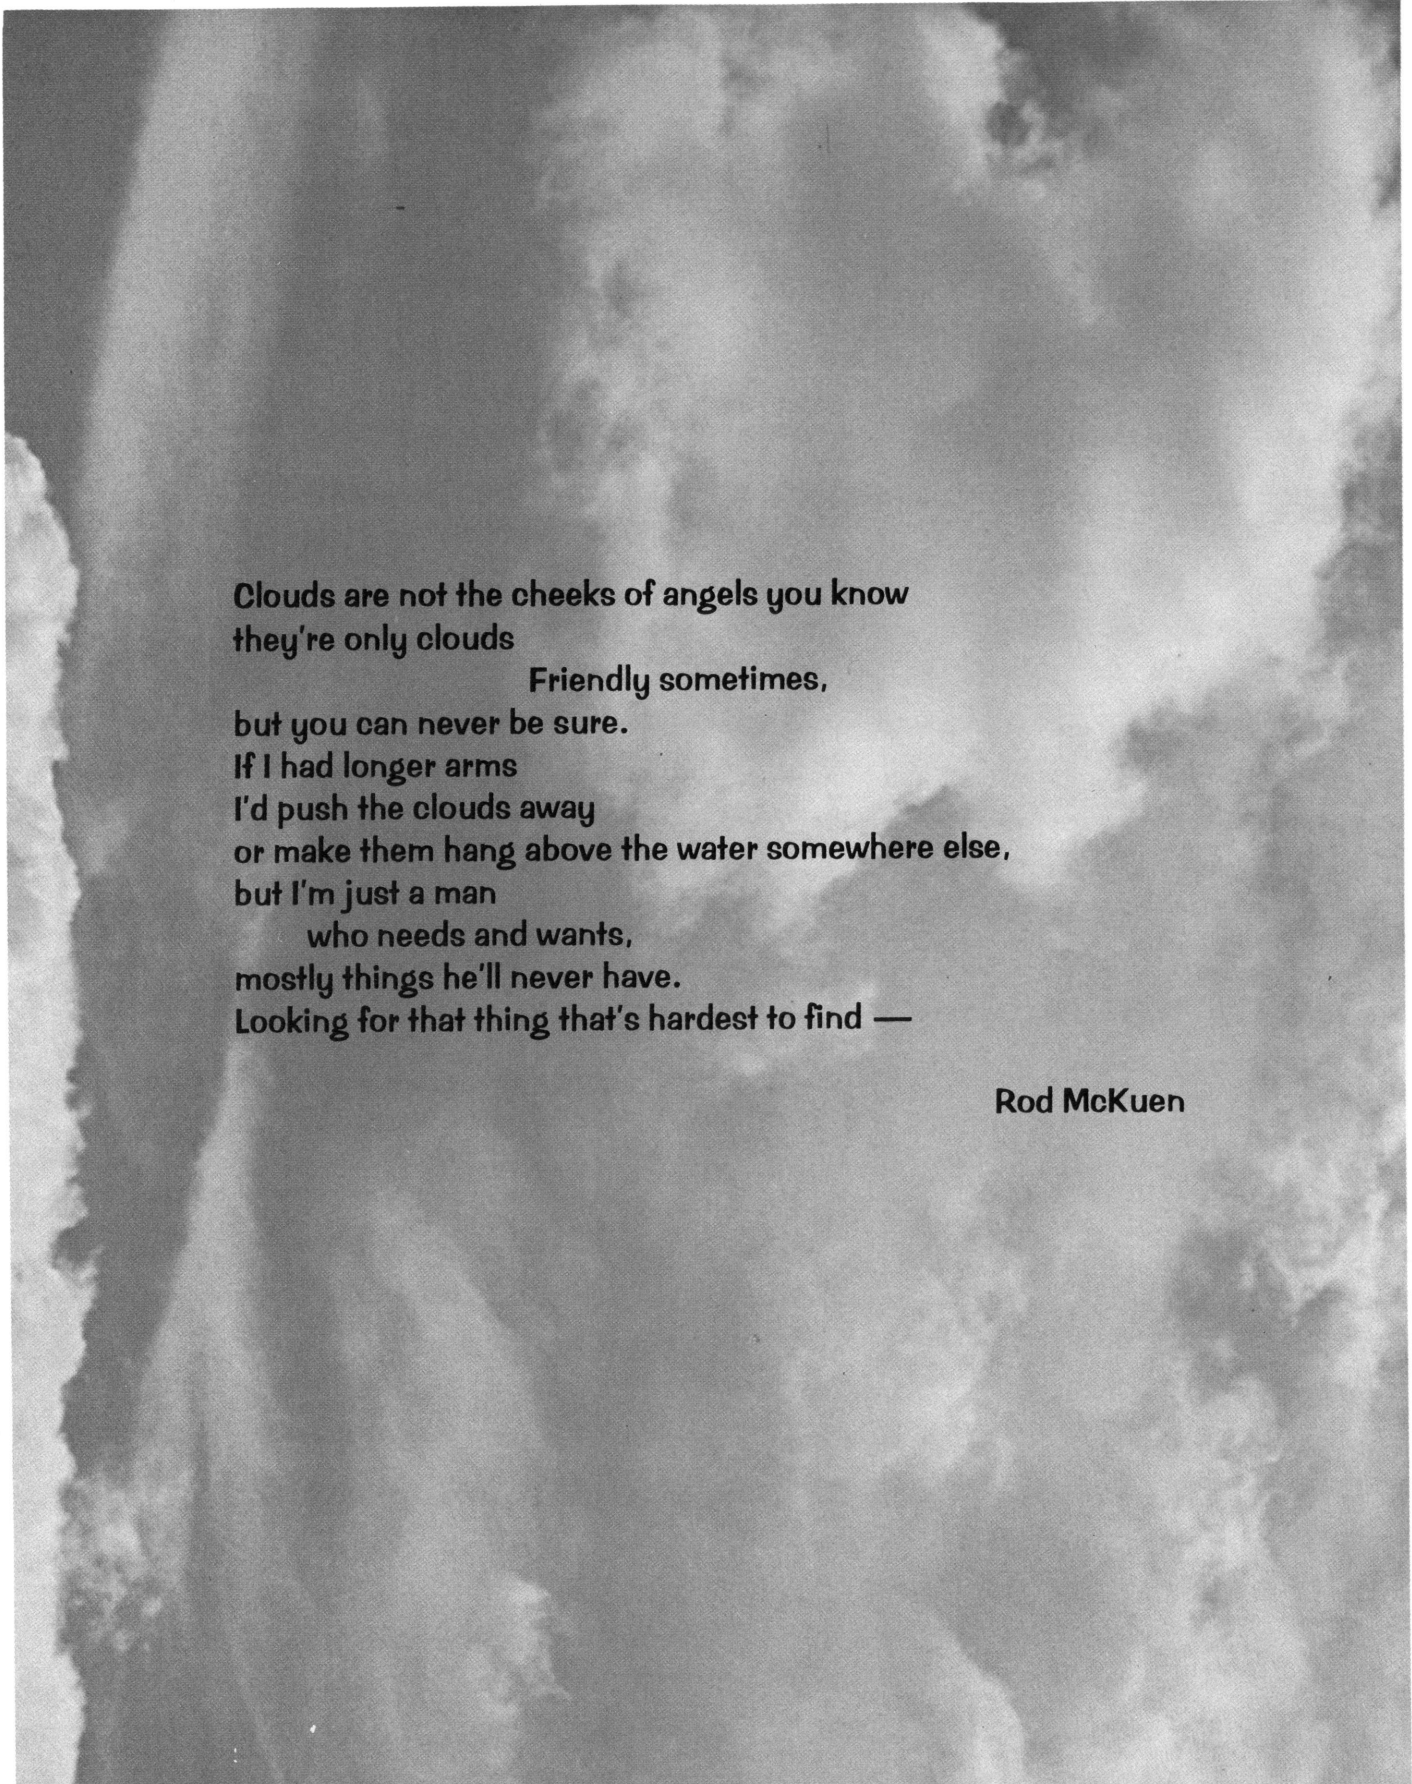

REASSURANCE

I've saved some sunlight if you should ever need a place away from the darkness.

Rod McKuen

Clouds are not the cheeks of angels you know
they're only clouds

Friendly sometimes,
but you can never be sure.
If I had longer arms
I'd push the clouds away
or make them hang above the water somewhere else,
but I'm just a man
who needs and wants,
mostly things he'll never have.
Looking for that thing that's hardest to find —

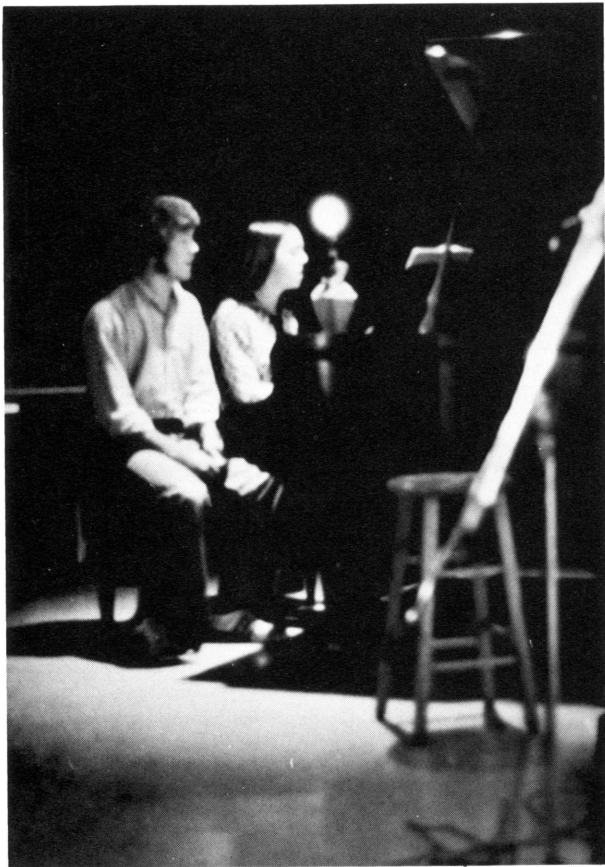

Rod McKuen

The associated student body officers pictured at the right served in the capacity as long as they felt possible dealing with problems of the students of the Martin campus. Finally the act of resignation was initiated due to the feeling that they were serving under false pretenses. It was felt that they held puppet positions. After resignation, these officers were replaced by newly elected ones.

ASG OFFICERS: Bottom: Vice-President, Jamie Cloyd, Treasurer, Kay Brinkley. Top: Secretary, George Johnson, President, Jim Robinson.

Many events such as the coffee houses above are sponsored by the ASG to entertain the students and amuse them on weekends.

Government

FRONT ROW: Left to Right — Bonnie Fults, Pam Gilliam, Tabby Carrigan, Melissa Cole, Margaret Custer, Penny Miller, Mary Mackey; BACK ROW: Left to Right — Overton Cambell, Mike Simpson, Bob Troxler, Samuel Holden, Ken Maxwell, Paul Gardner, Jeff Phillips; NOT PICTURED: Paula Fraizer, Jackie Rogers, Cheryl Lansford, Gail Williams, Marsha Stenberg, Mike Greene, Larry Ketchum, Tommy Oakley, and Laura Woolam.

The members of the ASG meet every Monday night to discuss plans for social activities and problems that students are having on campus. Campus life is often evaluated and ideas for improvement are mentioned, considered, and many times initiated by the ASG.

Student Christian Association

The SCA is a selective group of students chosen first at random by the officers and then the nominees are voted on by the student body. This association of Christian students builds fellowship and unity on the campus. They sponsor the annual Christmas party and Boo Out for certain children of the area which brings enjoyment to everyone involved. The Religious Emphasis Days are another example of the many SCA functions.

Hope Smith, Secretary-Treasurer; Melissa Cole, President; Garie Taylor, Advisor; Tricia Freeman, Vice-President; Alicia Stewart, Parliamentarian.

Trade Guild

The Trade Guild was formed with the interest of creative, talented, and patient students in mind. The members of the Trade Guild make pottery, and many other arts and crafts. It is a very enriching hobby if not a talent and many people of all types take part to pass the time of day and to increase their skill along this line.

STANDING: Bob Troxler, Chairman.
SEATED: George Johnson, ASG Representative.

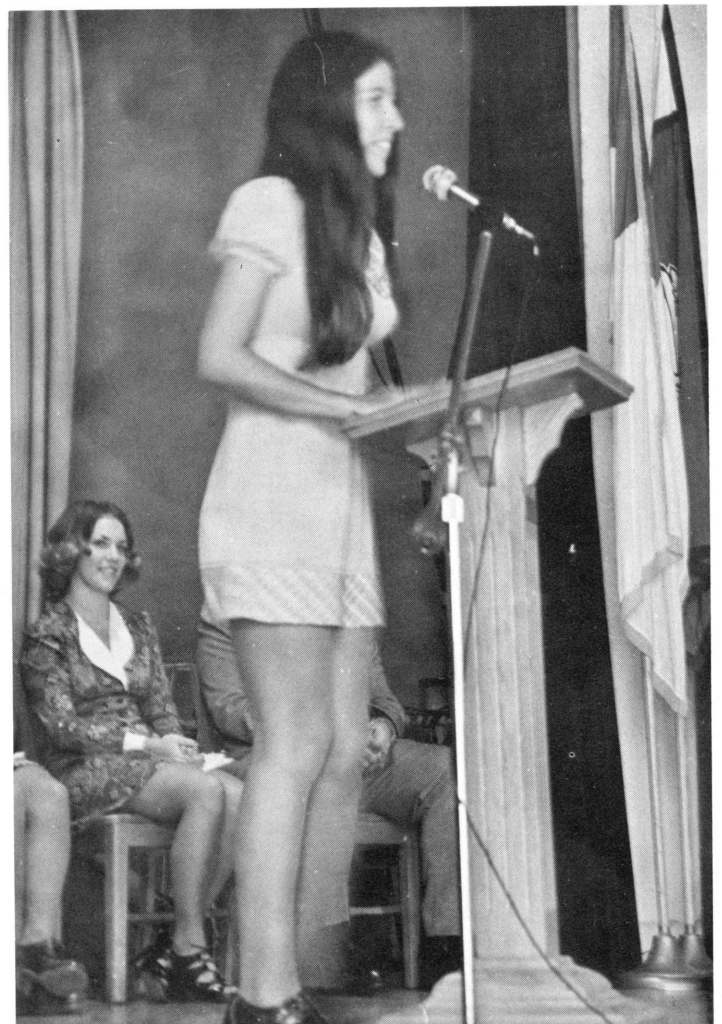

Day Student Government

The commuters live on the Martin College campus as do dorm residents and are a part of all the happenings. They play a big role in the campus community. The Day Student government is communication for commuters and keeps them well-informed on all the latest events. Bonnie Fults (right) was chosen as a freshman class representative for the ASG and is the voice of the off-campus students as well.

GIRLS' DORM COUNCIL: Mary Lou Moore, Dorm Mother; Gina Allen, Co-Chaplain; Gail Williams, Vivian Green, Alicia Stewart, Co-Chaplain; BACK ROW: Paula Frazier, President; Louise Stone, Jan Perkins, Edie Warren.

The dorm councils have worked hard to accomplish many things this year. Through their efforts, refrigerators were made available to those who wanted them and for the first time allowed to be installed in the dorms. The girls in Criswell Hall sponsored a fashion show for the campus and community to enjoy and raised money for various projects that may come up. The presidents have done a fine job in representing the residents of each dorm.

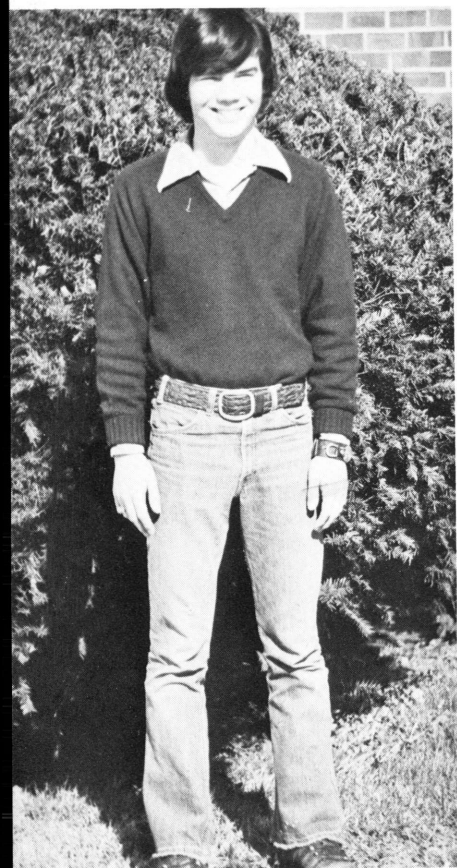

BOYS' DORM COUNCIL: Jackie Rogers, President; Mike Simpson, Don Bock, Sam Quarrels, Graham Hatcher, and Jeff Petry.

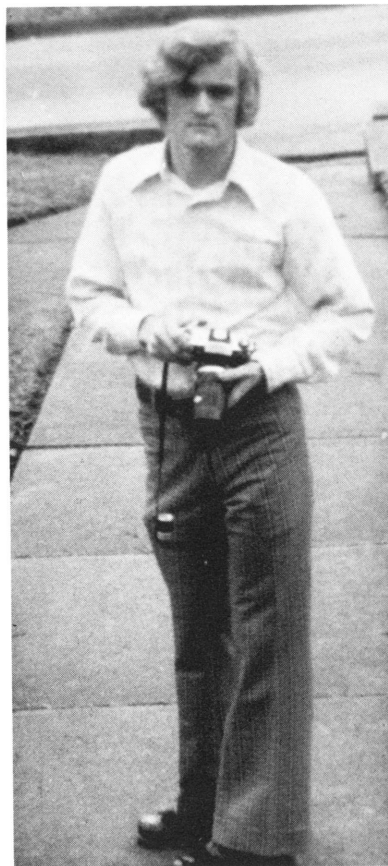

Annual Staff

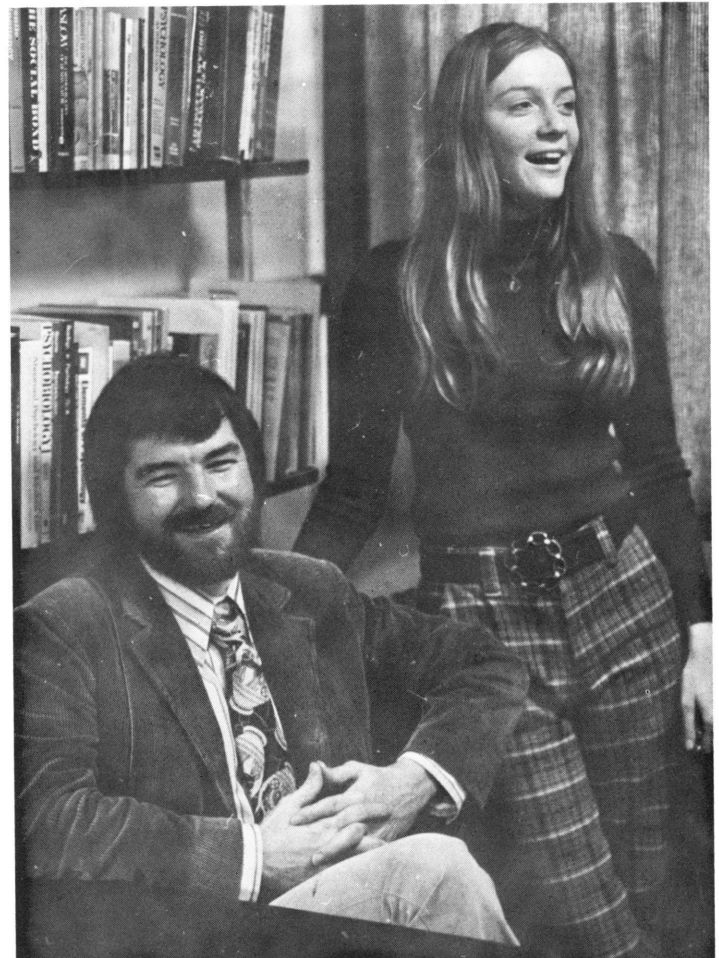

SEATED: Mr. David Buck, Penny Miller, Colleen Clift, Laura Woolam.

Their goal was to promote a quality for togetherness on campus and community. The accomplishments of Civitan should set an example for other Martin organizations to follow in the future.

COACH DON BURTON, as head basketball coach, has brought several championship teams to Martin. He has received many honors in his four years on staff. Two of these include Conference coach of the year and Region VII Coach of the year. Coach Burton has certainly been the coach of the year many times to Martin College.

COACH JERRY HIBDON is the tennis coach and assistant basketball coach. He carries with him many years of star basketball playing, including two years at Martin. His previous records of coaching are matched by his excellent coaching done at Martin. Coach Hibdon is in his fifth year as a faculty member.

KERMIT SMITH is head of the Department of Health and P.E. and acts as Athletic Director of intercollegiate and intramural sports. Martin has enjoyed success during the past years under Coach Smith. Both tennis and golf teams have won Conference and Regional titles. He is starting his 21st year as the "Chief."

COACH JEROME GILBERT served his first year at Martin this year. His position as head baseball coach brings experience to Martin as Coach Gilbert played for the Baltimore Orioles nine years. He also teaches English in addition to his coaching duties. Everyone feels the great asset Coach Gilbert has become to Martin.

MRS. ROYCE HUGHES is beginning her sixth year on the faculty at Martin. She is the head of P.E. Dept. for women and sponsor of the cheerleaders. Among her other duties, Mrs. Hughes is in charge of Women's Intramural teams, sponsor of the "M" club and Pep Club.

OCCASIONS

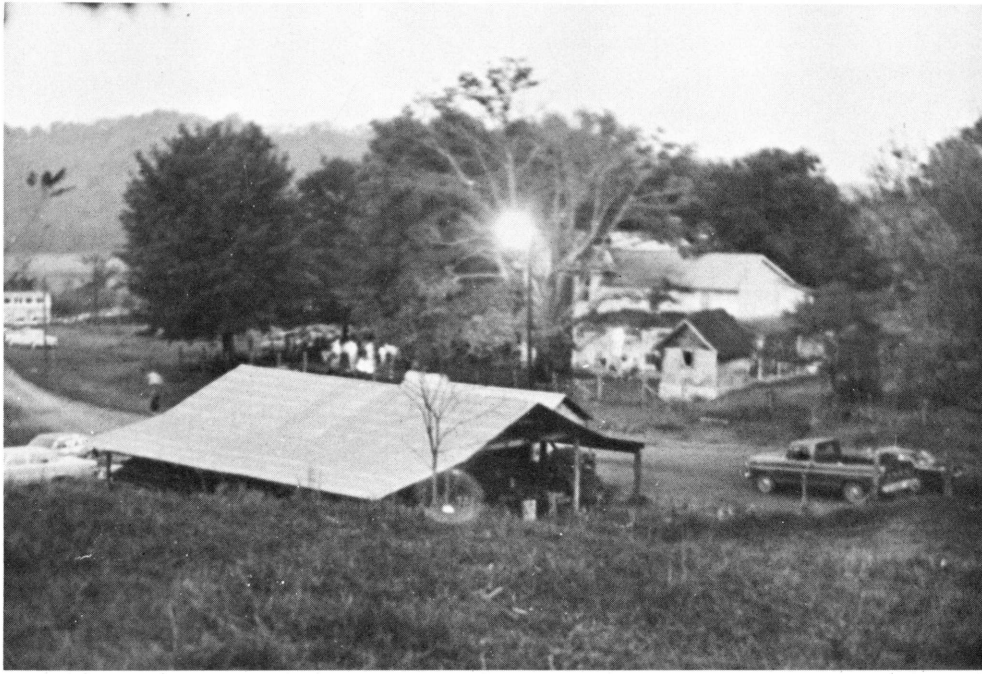

Kiddie Night

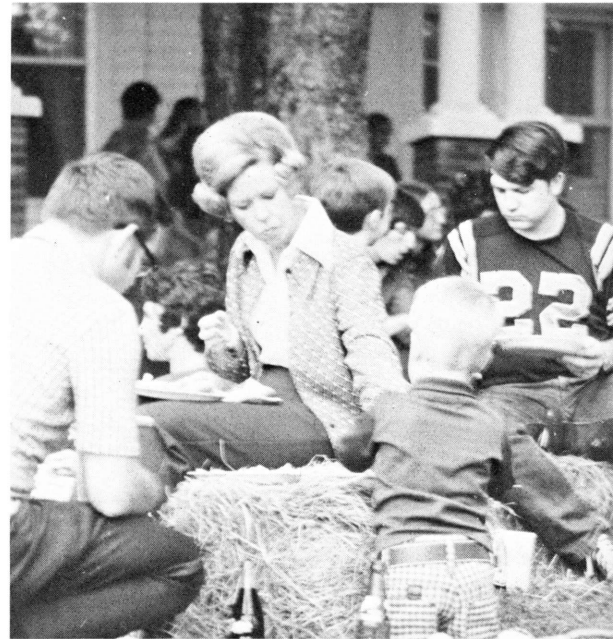

During the week of orientation, the freshmen were confronted with many new and challenging experiences. Probably the most difficult of these was the night all freshmen were asked to revert to their childhood. All in all, everyone played the part well.

Nickell Picnic

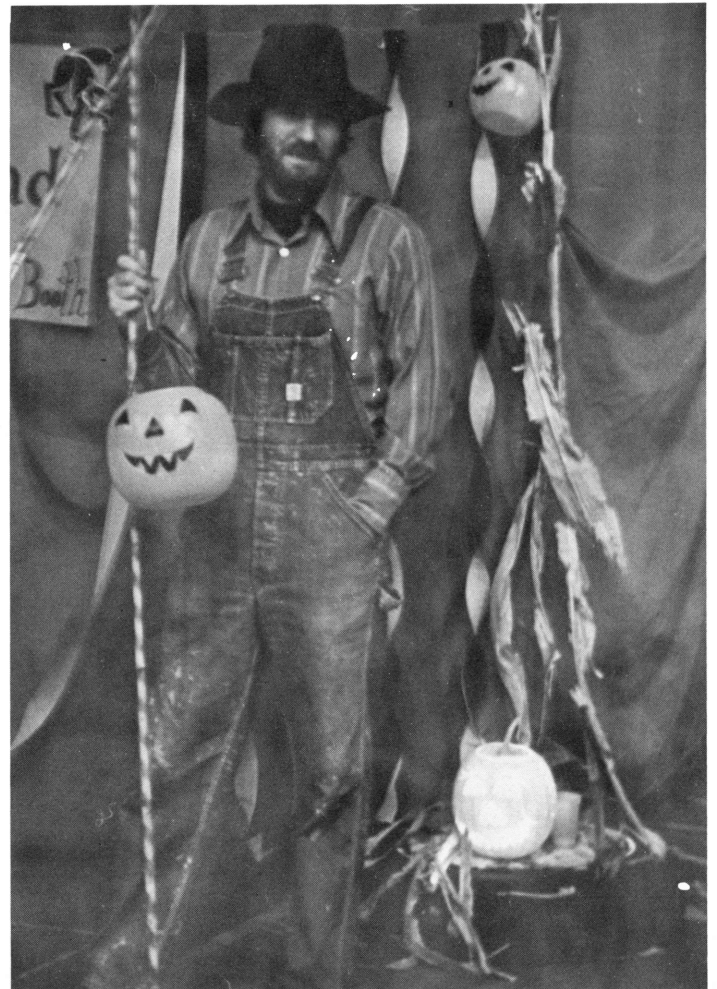

What better way to make friends than a picnic in the country? Hungry Martin students flocked to the Nickell farm for roasting weenies and just enjoying the scenery. The warm atmosphere helped change acquaintances to friends and even soften up to some of the faculty members.

SCA Sponsors

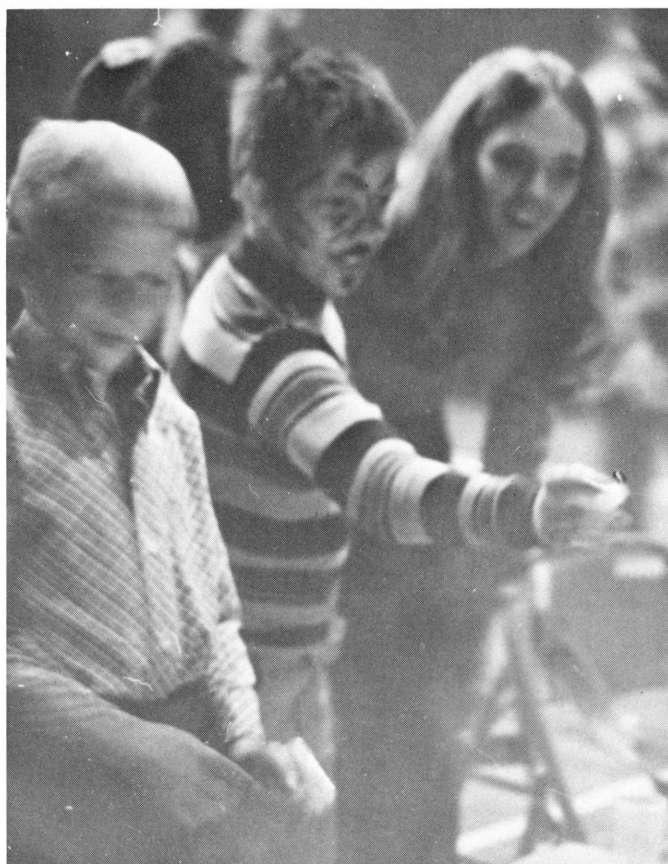

What is a Boo Out? As every Martin student is aware, this annual event sponsored by SCA serves children in the area with all the thrills and chills Halloween brings. Clubs may participate by originating a booth for all to enjoy. Among the most popular of booths was the sponge throw which meant revenge on faculty members for all interested (and rich) students. The SCA did an excellent job and the entire night was quite a success.

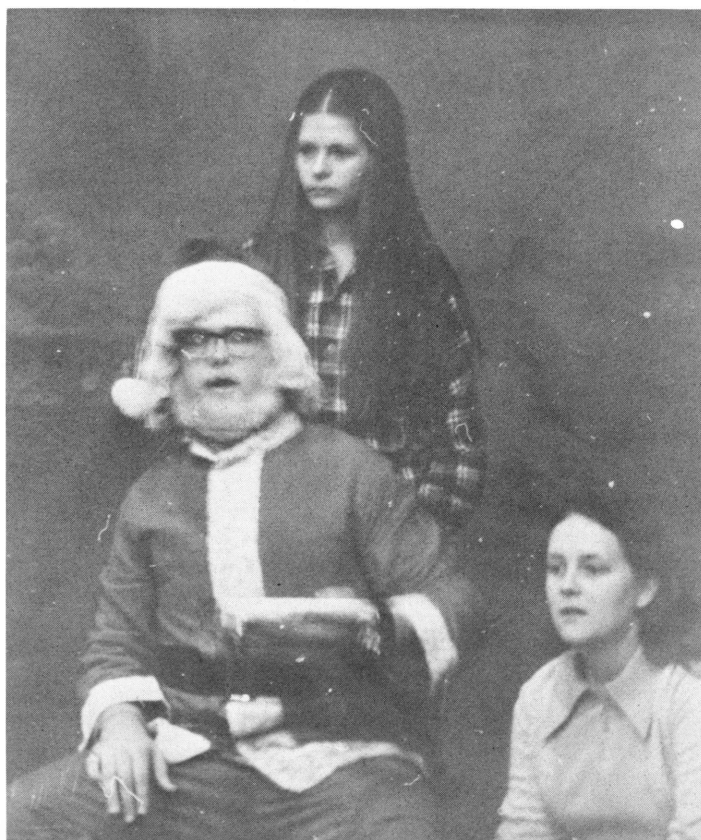

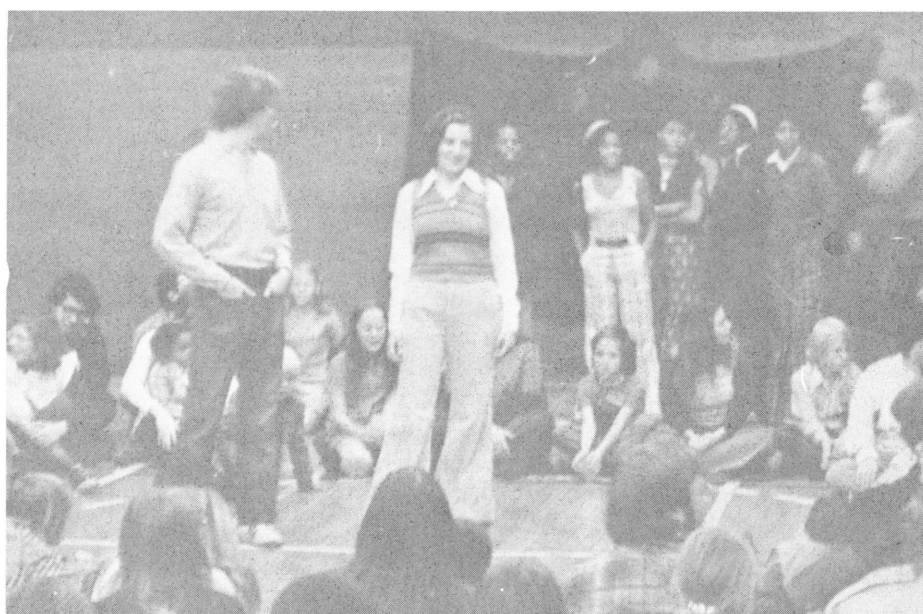

A Boo Out

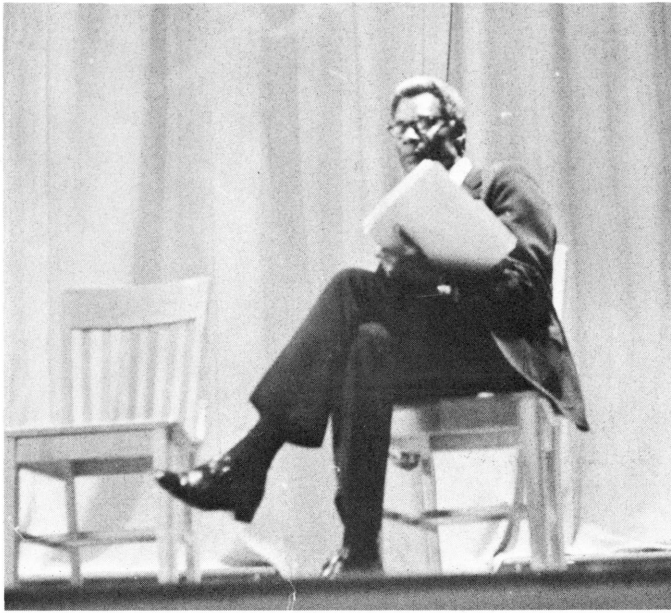

Santa Claus Comes To Martin

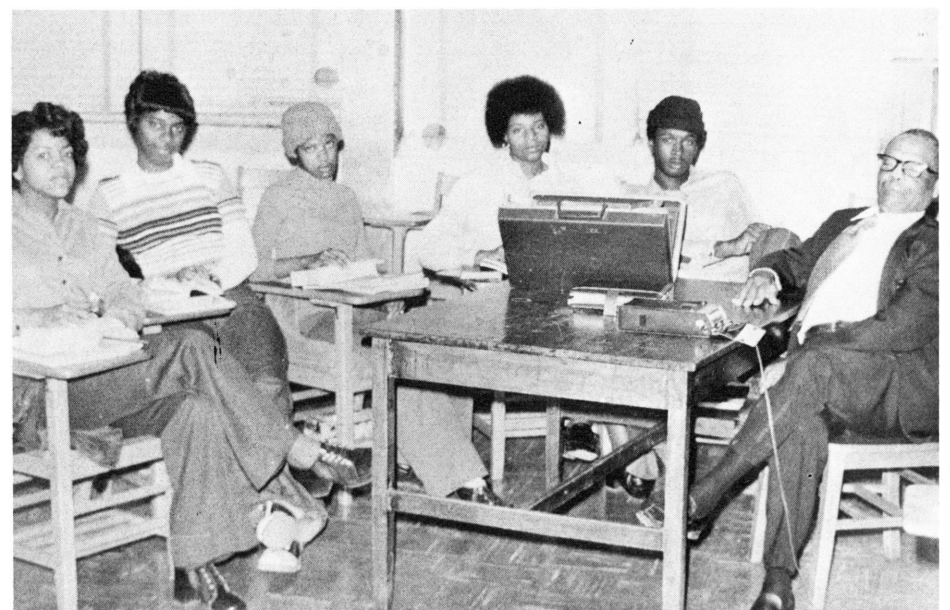

Each year the SCA sponsors a Christmas party for children in the Giles County area. Martin students are given a chance to adopt a child for the evening, buying him presents and making sure he has a good time. It is a tradition which has come to mean much to the children, and even more to the Martin students.

Black History Week

A week was set aside to learn about the culture and background of our fellow Black Americans. Dr. Atkinson spoke in an assembly, Fisk Jazz Ensemble came from Nashville to perform and for a special treat we had a real Soul Supper.

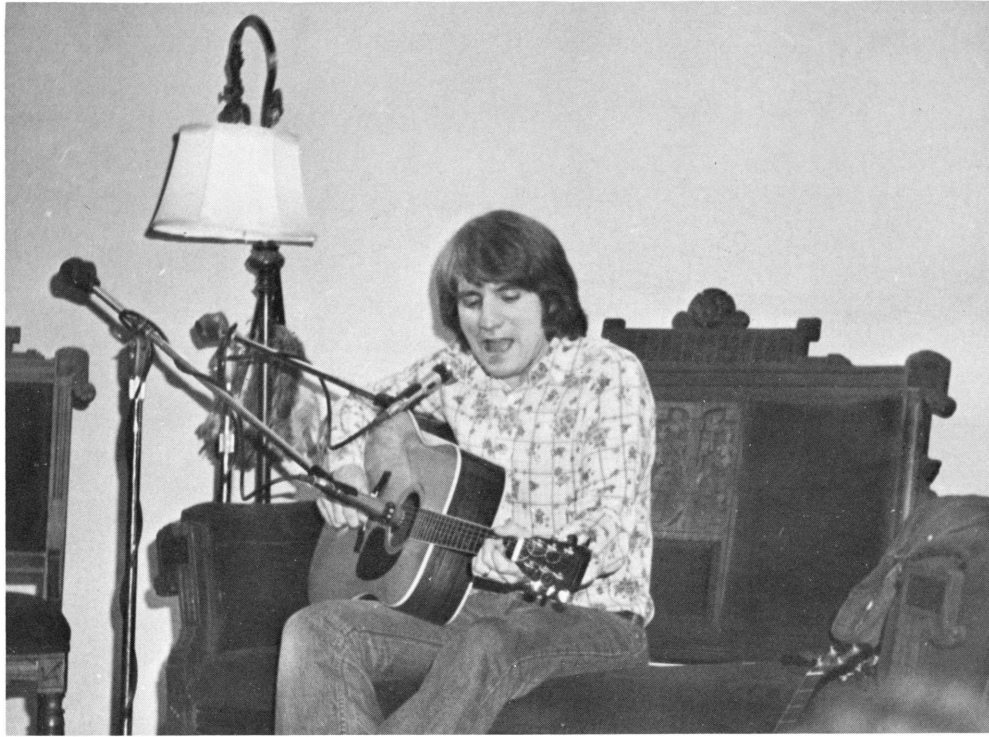

A Ground Breaking Marks The Beginning

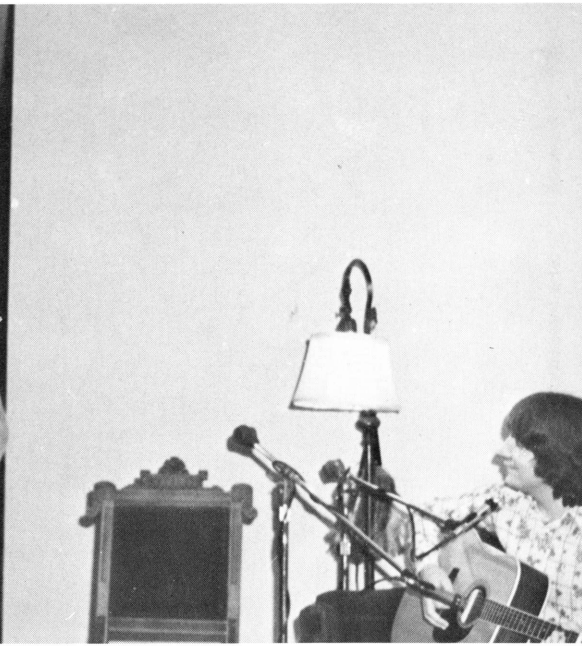

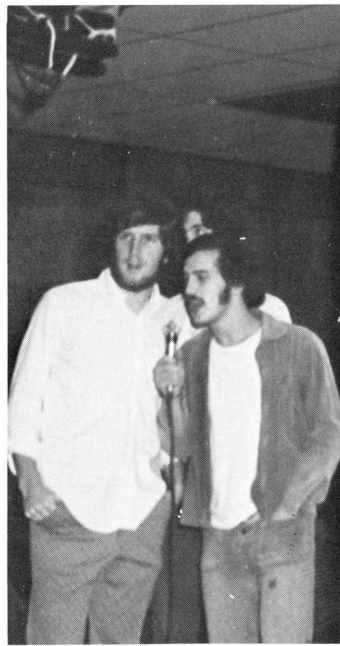

Martin is looking to the future with great excitement and hope. The first of this development was kicked off with a ground breaking. Officials, Trustees, Administrators and Bishop Ellis Finger participated in the ceremony. A new science-classroom building will be constructed next to the gym in the same location Tennessee Hall once stood. Everyone anxiously awaits the completion of this needed building.

Religious Emphasis Days

Gene Cotton performed in an assembly during Religious Emphasis Days. He sang songs from his albums and talked with students. Jimmy Bass, a Methodist minister, also shared his music with us and spoke.

Are Signs.

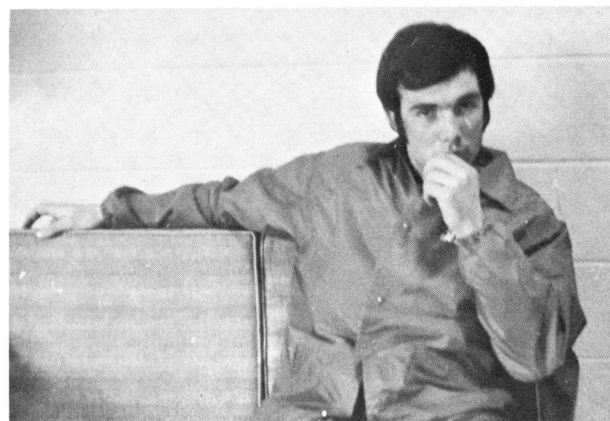

Am I true to myself? Do I believe in what I do? Am
I playing a role? Do I want to be like you?

Dedication

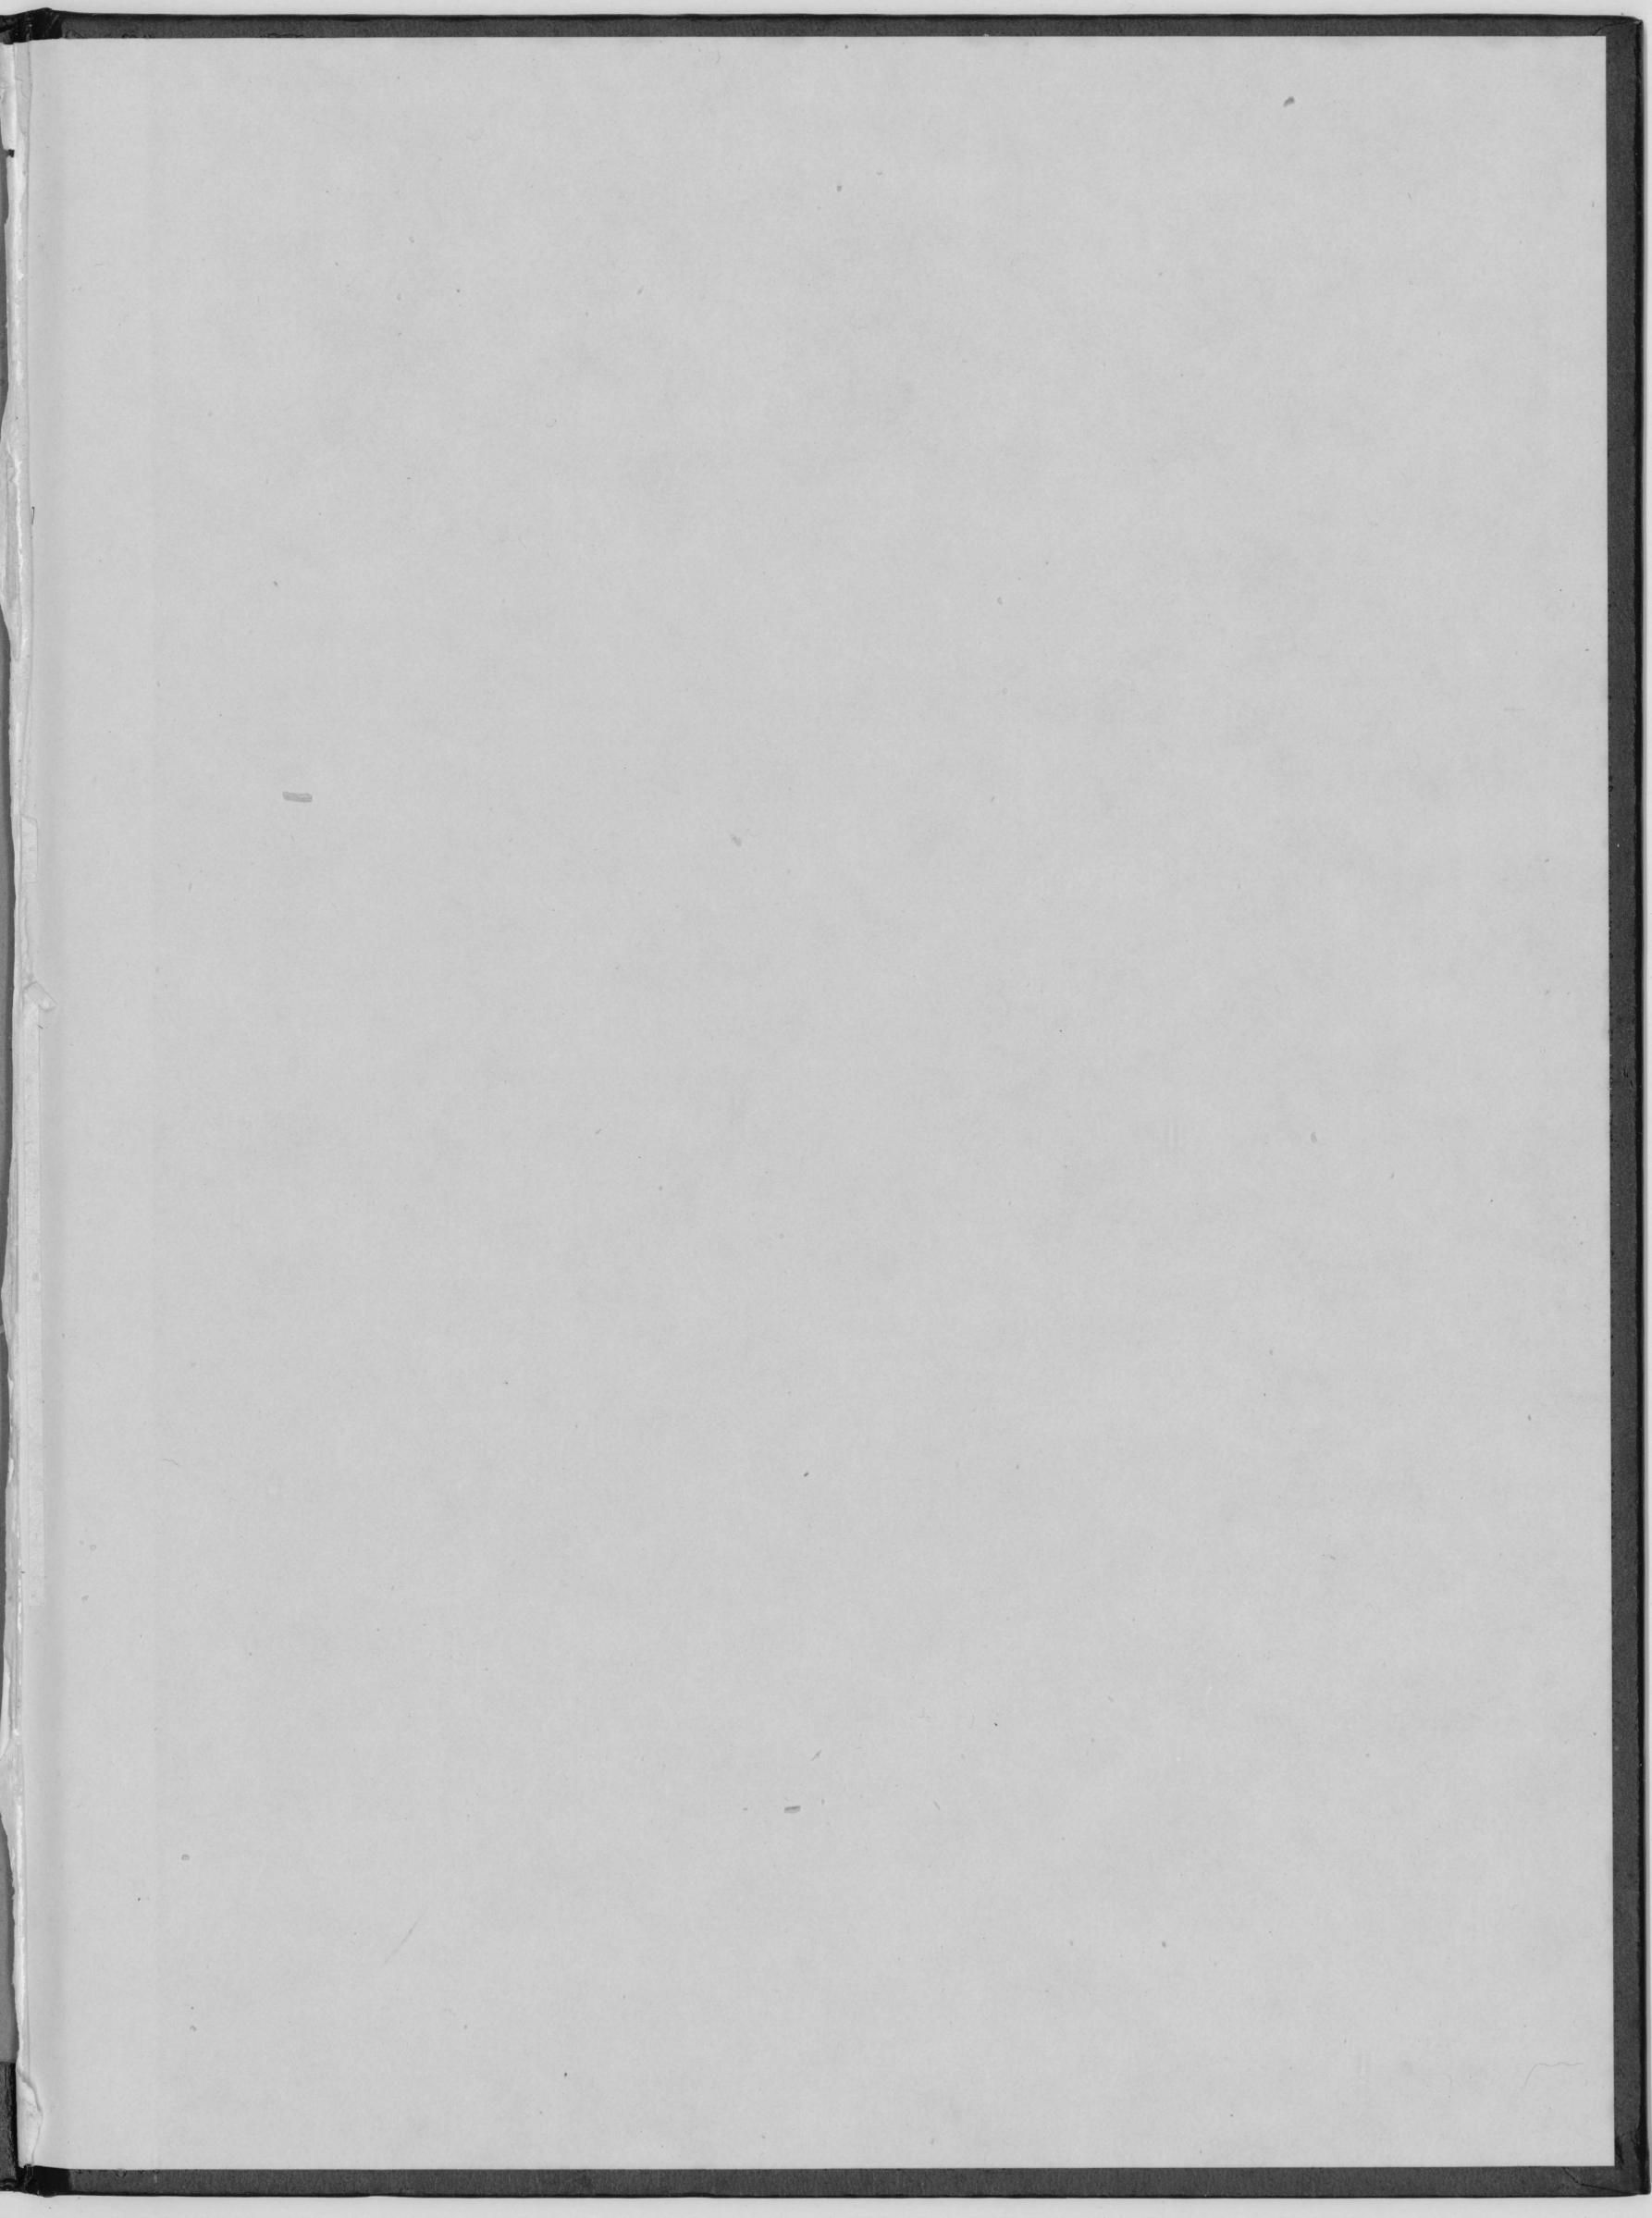

This 1973-1974 annual is dedicated to Virginia Barnes who has been head librarian at Martin College for twenty-two years. After the 1956 fire which completely destroyed the library, Miss Barnes has made a lasting contribution to the life of this academic community in personally supervising the acquisition of the present volumes. Being a dedicated member of the church, she believes in ministry and has shown this concern in her tireless efforts of individual assistance to students and faculty involved in research.

Those of us who have known and respected Virginia Barnes are grateful for the gift she has given us — the gift of integrity.
